MISSOULA--

Lovers of the outdoors may choose between two exciting events planned by the summer session recreation program at the University of Montana.

Both events are set for Friday through Sunday, Aug. 1-3.

The trips are open to summer session faculty, staff, students and the general public.

A pack trip, to be conducted by Buff Hultman, guide at the packer camp at Holland Lake, will go to Big Salmon Lake in the Bob Marshall Wilderness area.

The pack trip will leave the University Center at 8:30 a.m. Friday (Aug. 1) and will return to Missoula at 6 p.m. Sunday (Aug. 3).

A $45 fee for the three-day pack trip includes all expenses. Participants in the pack trip are expected to furnish only personal gear and sleeping bags. Packers also should bring warm clothing for evening wear, sturdy clothes for riding, and comfortable walking shoes and boots.

A backpack hike also set for Aug. 1-3 will go into the Mission Mountains. The hikers will camp out Aug. 2. The cost is $5 a person.

The backpack hike will leave the University Center at 12:30 p.m. Aug. 1 and will return to Missoula at 8 p.m. Aug. 3.

Those participating in the backpack hike are requested to bring personal gear, food and sleeping bags.

Persons interested in either of the trips are urged to sign up immediately at the University Center Information Desk. Those interested also may phone 243-4103.
